

New Jersey's Do-Not-Call laws are great for the individual citizen. I ask that the FCC not kow-tow to the corporate establishment. As evident by the national registry, most citizens would rather not be disturbed by companies trying to profit from phone calls at inopportune times. Uphold New Jersey's Law!